

I find broadband over power lines to be misguided and backward. Why should we develop technology to use power lines as broadband conduits? Organizations should be encourage to create new, less intrusive ways og transiting information. BPL will interfere with Ham radio, CB Radio, Low band FM, 30KHz and small town local fire and police. Please do not allow this to happen.